Dear Madam,

It is with deep regret I have to convey to you the very sad intelligence that your son No.1790 Frederick Clement, 35th Battalion, Australian Imperial Force, was killed in action on the 12th ultimo whilst serving with the British Expeditionary Force in France.

No further details have been received respecting the circumstances surrounding this most unfortunate happening, but in the event of any more news coming to hand I will communicate with you immediately.

I am directed to forward the enclosed message of condolence from Their Majesties the King and Queen.

With sincere sympathy,

Yours faithfully,

Mrs. M.H. Clement,
4, Summer Road,
Croydon.

Rana Lapsen

Lieutenant,
for Officer i/c Records.

The King commands me to assure you of the true sympathy of His Majesty and

The Queen in your sorrow.

Secretary of State for War.
